

United States Mint to Offer Variety of Products at ANA's National Money Show in Sacramento

March 10, 2011

WASHINGTON – The United States Mint will offer a wide range of products for sale at the 2011 American Numismatic Association's National Money Show in Sacramento, Calif., from March 17 to 19. Attendees will be able to purchase 2010 collectibles, as well as newly released products in the America the Beautiful Quarters® Program and the 2011 United States Army Commemorative Coin Program. Look for booth #433 in Halls A and B of the Sacramento Convention Center.

Additional products on hand will include the following.

- * Assorted annual sets, such as the 2011 United States Mint Proof Set®, the 2011 United States Mint Silver Proof Set™ and the 2011 United States Mint Uncirculated Coin Set®
- * Assorted Presidential $1 Coin products, including the 2011 Presidential $1 Coin Proof Set™
- * Assorted bronze medals honoring first spouses, Abraham Lincoln, the Tuskegee Airmen, the Dalai Lama, Navajo Code Talkers and others

The public may also purchase these and other products at the United States Mint's secure Web site, <http://www.usmint.gov/catalog> or at 1-800-USA-MINT (872-6468). Hearing- and speech-impaired customers with TTY equipment may order by calling 1-888-321-MINT (6468).

The United States Mint, created by Congress in 1792, is the Nation's sole manufacturer of legal tender coinage and is responsible for producing circulating coinage for the Nation to conduct its trade and commerce. The United States Mint also produces proof, uncirculated and commemorative coins; Congressional Gold Medals; and silver, gold and platinum bullion coins.
